

BfL stands for Behaviour for Learning. It gives you an indicator of how prepared you are to learn.

a - OUTSTANDING STUDENTS	You really invest in your own learning. You are always: ready to learn, respectful of others' right to learn and responsible for your own work being exceptional. You do everything your parents, carers and staff could ask and are a fabulous role model for other students. In addition to meeting all the requirements in the good section, you also: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet or surpass every expectation • Go above and beyond in your work time after time
b - GOOD STUDENTS	You show staff, parents, carers and other students you want to learn. You: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Always meet deadlines set for you • Complete all work to the best of your ability • Follow instructions from staff • Show respect to staff and students • Show a willingness to learn • Contribute positively to your class and school
c - COASTING STUDENTS - This is your wakeup call.	You are beginning to neglect your studies. You are not always ready to work. You need to take more responsibility for the quality of your work. You generally: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete work to the best of your ability • Follow instructions from staff • Show respect to staff and students • Show a willingness to learn • Contribute positively to your class and school However, you also exhibit behaviour which prevents the learning of yourself or others. You submit work which is not to your best standard. Your class teacher will monitor you from this point forward and we expect to see more focus and effort in future.
d - TARGET	You require help in valuing your own learning. You disrupt the learning of others. You frequently: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fail to complete work • Interrupt lessons • Prevent learning • Arrive late • Distract other students and get distracted easily • Refuse reasonable requests A system of intervention will be put in place for you and your parents / carers contacted. Strategies will be chosen to guide you and monitor your progress.
e - AT RISK	You are having major difficulties in managing your learning and behaviour. You are stopping others from learning. You: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rarely complete work • Prevent learning • Arrive late • Do not respond to help offered A system of intervention will be put in place for you and your parents / carers contacted. Strategies will be chosen to guide you and monitor your progress.
