

English transition work

A) Write a 1200 word essay on the following:

How does Shakespeare represent the theme of love in Romeo and Juliet. As this will be of A level standard you need to do the following:

1. Research critics' opinions on this theme on the internet.
2. Include a range of language, structure and form analysis.
3. Include historical context.

B) Choose a book you have read from an established author from the literary canon. There are examples of the literary canon on line. Write a detailed summary and review of the book.