Dear Parents/Carers

Re: Odd Socks day – Monday 12 November 2018

As part of anti-bullying week, on Monday 12 November 2018 we are inviting students to wear odd socks to school, the wackier the better. Students will still be required to wear full school uniform but will be allowed to roll their trousers up to show off their socks. As girls are able to wear skirts, on this occasion, boys taking part will be able to wear their school PE shorts if they wish. We would like as much support for this event as possible to demonstrate our intolerance of bullying but should students not wish to take part, they will be expected to wear their uniform as usual.

As part of Anti-Bullying Week we would love you to take part in the Odd Socks Day.

Wear your wackiest odd socks for a £2 donation.

We will be raising money for the anti-bullying alliance. We encourage all students to take part in this and to bring in a suggested donation of £2 for this very worthwhile cause. The money will be collected during mentor time on Monday 5 November 2018, prior to the event.

Yours faithfully
